THE steamer Azoff arrived yesterd about noon with the Shanghai mails, having left On our fourth page will be found the resume of political affairs reproduced from Shanghai Market Report, on which however we regret to have to state, no reliance whatever can be placed, and we only present it to order, and is well supplied with every description our readers as a specimen of the sophist" and n.ondacity whereon British policy in EUROPEAN FOREMEN superintend the China is based. Our contemporary of the North China Herald is really too bad. He must bave known that a portion of Gordon force had suffered a terrible reverse, The editors of the Friend of China and Recorder had both received intimation of the affair. nasmuch as they both mention it. We derive the following details from friend at Shanghai who himself had a despatch from Gordon's head quarters. The Taipings appear to have lately derived an augmentation of strength in the shape of some ten to fifteen thousand Kwang tung and Kwangsi men, who are the most savage ruthless paper on the 8th January, continuing in its scoundrels conceivable. They travel with-do others who fall in their power. It was these men who repulsed the Imperial troops at Chang-chow, and who afterwards attacked Kiang-vin, Chang-zu and other places On Kiang-yin their attack failed, but at other pulse at Kintang, determined on attacking this body of rebels. He came up to a party of them on the 26th March, about ten miles from Kiang-yin, and although he had but 500 men with him, he easily scattered them. on account of their being badly armed. He pursued them for some little distance, but as they fled in the direction he wished them not to go, he relinquished the pursuit. He then made up his mind to attack their main body which lay near Changzu; the intention being to drive them towards Kiang-yin and Chaug-

chow, where the Imperial stockades stopping their progress, would place them between two We suppose that Gordon himself was un able to take the field on account of his late wound, for on the 30th ulto, he dispatched Colonels Rhade and Howard with 1,000 men o attack and drive in the extreme line of the enemy. The rebels hearing of Gordon's intention, spread their forces in such a manner as to lure Rhode and Howard on until they O Old Fruity Ports, in do. do., bottled by were completely surrounded, when they had to cut their way out and retreat, losing thereby seven officers and about one hundred and fifty men. All these officers were made prisoners, none were killed in fair fight. The corpse of one of them was subsequently seen at open, and there is very little doubt, in best none, that all have been put to death. Their paines were Captain Gibbon, Lieut. Platt, Capt. Schinkoff, (it was his body which was subsequently seen) Lieut. Graves, Capt. | tf Hongkong, 8th October, 1863. Dowling, Lieut. Hughes, Lieut. Polkson.

The rumoured advance of the rehels which we mentioned in our last issue has since been confirmed. The Kin-tan garrison had sent messengers to Leyang, offering to surrender, and stating that they had shaved their heads. Their offer was of course accepted, and the city was already locked we reported the surrender as baving taken place guard under command of Captain Applin. on as in Imperialist possession; so much so, that in fact as well as verbally. Gordon, equally looking on this result as certain, advanced from Le-yang with only 800 men and two pieces of artillery to take formal possession of the city, but was surprised on his arrival to find himself excluded. He landed his artillery and breached the wall without opposision; but the garrison three times repulsed the stormers, and Gordon was at length obliged to retire on Le-yang with the loss of 115 men and fourteen officers killed and wounded. It is said that Chung-wang, hearing of the intended capitulation, sent troops from Nankin, which is only about 70 miles distant, and that they, and not the eriginal garrison, defended the breach with such obstinacy. Gordon would &c., &c., having received the following dispatch no doubt have returned in two or three days with and enclosure from the Prince Kung, whief Secrereinforcements and retrieved his defeat, if intelli- tary of State for Foreign Affairs, has directed the a sally by the garrison of Chang-Chow, the de- | formation. feat of the besieging force, and the consequent danger of Kinng-yin and Chiang-zu. Yokohama.

By the steamer Nepaul, we have received advices from Yokohama to the 26th ultime. We eather that the Tycoon and the Mikado have come to an excellent understanding, and that the former has been honoured with additional rank and title. A conference of Daimios is being held to deliberate on the state of the kingdom, principally of course, with reference to the effect produced by the presence of foreigners. The result of their deliberations was expected to be made known about the middle of the current month. The destruction of one of Satsuma's vessels by the prince of Chosew is confirmed. It appears that the vessel anchored in the straits of Simonosaki in the evening; and that, shortly afterwards, the bat -- | teries of the northern shore opened fire on her, No attention was paid to the signals made by the steamer to show she was a Japanese vessel; and eventually a fire broke out on board her. U. S. LEGATION, PERING Mar 8th, 1864. To HIS IMPERIAL HIGHNESS PRINCE KUNG. "Sin .- Your Imperial Highness is aware that, for sometime past, a rebellion has existed in the United States against the authority of the same. I am happy to inform you that now, after three year's contest, it has been beaten from more than half of the space originally occupied by it, and that it is surrounded by our armies and navy, and must, perhaps during the present year, be destroyed. The rebels, in their desperation, have contrived to buy and arm a few steamers, with no other object than to destroy the peaceful commerce of the United States: As they have no ports in their own country into which they can take their prises, and all other nations forbid them their harbors, they burn them at sea, and thus violate the law of justice and of nations.
